PIEDMONT - BAROLO

Barolo wine is a quintessential expression of the Nebbiolo grape, hailing from the Piedmont region of northwest Italy. Revered as one of Italy's most prestigious wines, Barolo embodies the essence of tradition and terroir. Its captivating aromas include notes of dried roses, violets, ripe cherries, and earthy nuances like tar and leather. On the palate, Barolo exhibits a complex interplay of flavours, showcasing red fruits, spices, and subtle hints of tobacco, all framed by chalky tannins and vibrant acidity.

Barolo's distinct character is shaped by the region's unique terroir, characterized by its nutrient-poor soils, cool climate, and significant diurnal temperature variations. The Nebbiolo grapes undergo meticulous vinification and aging processes, often spending years maturing before release. This patient craftsmanship results in a wine of exceptional depth and complexity, renowned for its age-worthiness and ability to evolve gracefully over decades.

PIEDMONT - BARBARESCO

Some say if Barolo is the King of wines, Barbaresco must be the Queen...

Barbaresco comes from a smaller area in Piedmont, only 23 kms northeast of Barolo. The wine is made from 100% Nebbiolo grapes but can age for 1 year less in oak. The wines of Barbaresco are light in colour, tannic and structured with dried cherry, fennel, leather and violets. They are lifted, ethereal, aromatic yet have a strong presence. Thanks to iconic producers such as Bruno Giacosa and Angelo Gaja, these wines are widely celebrated and revered around the world.

GIUSEPPE QUINTARELLI - VENETO

Quintarelli is a renowned winery located in the Veneto region, specifically in the Valpolicella zone. The estate is famous for its iconic Amarone della Valpolicella wines, among other notable bottlings. Giuseppe Quintarelli, the founder of the winery, is considered a legendary figure in the world of Italian wine. He was known for his meticulous attention to detail in the vineyard and winery, as well as his commitment to traditional winemaking methods.

Quintarelli's wines are of exceptional quality and intensity and are incredibly rare due to the limited quantities produced. They are rich, powerful wines with extensive aging potential. A joy to drink.

NERVI-CONTERNO - GATTINARA

Nervi is a historic winery in Gattinara, recognized as one of the oldest producers in the region, with a legacy dating back to the 19th century. The winery is esteemed for its commitment to traditional winemaking practices and its focus on producing wines that reflect the unique terroir of the Gattinara area. Roberto Conterno purchased the property in 2018, which makes the future of this estate even more exciting.

Nervi Gattinara wines typically undergo extended aging, both in oak barrels and in bottle, to allow the flavors to develop and integrate fully. As a result, they often exhibit a fine balance between fruit, tannins, and acidity, with the potential to age gracefully for many years, evolving in complexity and depth over time. The two single vineyard wines are exceptionally brilliant and evolve beautifully in the glass.

We are very proud to be strong supporters of the Nervi wines at POST Osteria.

ARIANNA OCCHIPINTI - SICILY

Arianna Occhipinti is currently a cult name in the Italian wine scene, with demand for her highly sought after wines outstripping total production. Arianna's style of winemaking is very hands off with a strong approach to organics and biodynamics in her vineyards. The wines speak so well of place, have great character and are just joys to drink - sliding seamlessly across the palate.

FORADORI - TRENINO

At the helm of Azienda Agricola Foradori is Elisabetta Foradori - a fourth generation, incredibly influential winemaker, who took over her family estate when she was only 19.

Elisabetta is a true artisanal farmer, favouring biodynamic practises and a minimal intervention approach to her winemaking. These scarce and highly sought after wines have beautiful poise and transparency.
